

Did you notice.....

*There was a day a while ago,
it seemed like other days you know.
Radio blared with ads and singing,
the phones, well they just kept on ringing.
Traffic throbbed along its way
as children shouted and called at play.
Jumbos flew and jumbos landed,
hands were shaken as business demanded.*

Did you notice.....

*Towards the end of this usual day,
peace took over in a small way.
A last breath was heard, a heart stopped beating,
then all was quiet, for a time just fleeting.*

Did you notice.....
