

A Mirror for Jesus

Dear Heavenly Father let me be, let me be A Mirror for Jesus. Let every inch of me, be a reflection of him for him and all to see. Let none of my imperfections show, so when he or anyone looks at me only His Love is what they will know.

Please Father let me be, let me be A Mirror for Jesus. Let me reflect His Love back to him so He will see just how much he means to me. Let His Compassion reflect on my face, so He will know the compassion he gave to me and everyone was worth his life.

Let His Strength be reflected in my arms and shoulders. Let it reflect back to him to replenish and refresh his spirit as it has strengthened me. Let my hands reflect His Guidance, so He will know that he has shown me the Truth and the Way.

Let His Forgiveness reflect in my smile, to show Him just how clean He has washed my sins away. Let my smile reflect His Judgment, to let everyone know He is Just in your will, Father, that sent him. Let my heart be a mirror image of His Holy Spirit. An image of The Father. Let it reflect the awe, wonder, and the very essence of God's being. For it is in my heart that he lives.

I wish to reflect to him All that he has given to me, but as a human I am imperfect. I can only give him imperfection. But if I were, A Mirror for Jesus; I could reflect His Perfect Love for All to see. So, Please Father let me be, let me be A Mirror for Jesus.

(c) By Janet Head

